2017 Business Excellence Awards: Nomination Form

The BCCI Business Excellence Awards recognise local businesses that demonstrate excellence in practice, business achievement, or for their contribution to the local area. All BCCI members are invited to nominate local businesses for these awards and all local businesses are eligible for nomination regardless of size, nature or membership status. There are five award categories:

1. Business of the Year - this award recognises an outstanding local business that demonstrates exemplary practice or has achieved particular success – for example, by providing employment to the local community, demonstrating a high standard of business management or growth, and/or contributing in some way to the local business sector or the local community.
2. Service Excellence – this award recognises a business that provides outstanding customer service to its clients, and/or other businesses, and/or the broader community.
3. President’s Award - this award recognises a business, small or large, for a noteworthy achievement or for demonstrating excellence in ways that may not be covered by the other award categories.
4. Trade Services Award – this award recognises a business in the Trade Services industry that demonstrates excellence in understanding of customer requirements, technical product delivery, maintenance management, sound time management and customer service.
5. Community Service Award – this award recognises an organisation or an individual who selflessly volunteers themselves to assist others in the broader community
